Week 3 Term 4

Hats on in Term 1, 2 and 4

Hello everyone,

Welcome to week 3 everyone. We started this week with a student free day that allowed our staff and the staff of 6 other schools in the network to combine for the day to learn about an assessment package that will streamline our assessment of reading and allow us to more accurately assess students at a grade 5 to 8 reading levels. This will improve student outcomes for all our students, as teachers will be able to teach students from their point of need more accurately.

Tomorrow afternoon the long awaited Disco will be on in the hall. Prep to grade 2 will be able to attend from 4:00pm - 5:00pm and grade 3 to 6 will be from 5:30pm - 6:30pm. The cost is $5:00 per child. "Be there or be square" as it will be a great afternoon with lots of great dancing from everyone.

Today a note is coming home about the dental van that will be here for a week beginning on the 26th of November. You will need to return the notes to the office by 16th of November so we can have numbers to inform the dentists. This dental check is free and any further work will be bulk billed. I am hoping that we will be overwhelmed with notes.

Const. Toni Redshaw is coming on the 1st of November to present a cyber-bullying presentation to the school. Const. Redshaw has been fighting this insidious behaviour for many years and we are looking forward to her presentation to help inform and support our students.

On Friday 16th of November, the teachers will be working hard at school writing reports. Students will be unable to attend this day, as no classes will be being conducted. This is a significant step in our report writing process, which has been approved by the School Council.

On the 28th of November, the whole school will be taking part in a march against domestic violence. The march will start at GLCH at 10:30 and walk down to the all abilities playground along Main Street. I hope parents and siblings can join us on the march.

Just a reminder to parents that ALL students in terms 1 and 4 need to have a school broad brimmed hat to reduce to danger from the sun. If your child does not have a hat they will be asked to play in the shade, out of the sun.

Our wonderful art teacher, Jenny Backman and some of our 5/6 students, have been busily painting inspirational messages on the students toilet doors. This will take some time to complete as the art is of a very high quality. At the moment, Mrs Backman is working in the boys toilet. I am encouraging you to have a quick look and see the great art work that is occurring.
