Newsletter Week 7 Term 2

Hello and welcome to the week 8 Newsletter!

Week 8 has been "long" already and I, like you, am looking forward to a long weekend. To reset and look forward to the last section of the term. Please, don't forget that your family has an extra long weekend!

Tuesday 12th June - Report Writing Day. This is a student free day, when all the teachers complete the final touches to your children's reports. The teachers will have already spent many long hours assessing, and reporting. I know that there is nothing that pleases teachers more than seeing their children's learning improve. I have already had several conversations where this has been celebrated! All reports are then proof read, Warwick and I will read and comment, then they are printed, ready for distribution on Thursday 28th June.

We need to say a "short farewell" to Kate Allen, the Education Support person in the Prep room. Kate and her family are travelling to England for a family wedding, plus I am certain that they are sneaking in a lovely holiday as well! Kate will be back with us at the start of term 3. I know that her work will be missed in the Prep room and they will be happy to welcome her back.

PLAYGROUP of a Thursday will continue its usual program, with Fiona Clarke taking over the reins. Fiona has been directly involved for the last 2 weeks and I am supremely confident that this valuable program will simply "sail along".

Student Led Conferences: These will occur on Friday the 22nd June. The arrangements are as follows: We have blocked out the first 2 hours of the day from 8.50am to 10.50am. During this time, you should be able to enjoy spending some time with your child, letting them guide you through their work for this semester. For the families who have several children, then you will need to move around the school as is appropriate. I know that the children really enjoy this opportunity and by the numbers of adults that we have come along – obviously the families do to. I look forward to seeing you.

Something to Ponder: I attended a funeral this Tuesday of a close family friend, a dear lady that since being a small child all my family always called her "Gran", even though she wasn't my Grandmother. Gran lived to 92 before her health finally failed. She migrated from England as a "10 Pound Pom", saw world wars, depression times, multiple Prime Ministers and I specifically remember going with Gran to see the movie "The Kings Speech" – Gran quietly shed a tear as she remembered being in the crowd of King George VI's first public speech.

To ponder: We need to always value the treasures that our older generation family members can offer. How often do your children share tales of the past?

Talk soon.
Trudie Nagle
Principal

School Absences:

Parents/Carers, please remember to call the school by 9.00am if your child/children are going to be absent this will enable us to mark them accordingly on the roll and save you a phone call from our attendance officer.

Overdue books not returned will incur a $10.00 lost fee and your child will be unable to borrow books until the fee is paid or books have been returned. Please have your child look under beds, behind couches or the back seat of the car to try and locate their missing books. Thank you - Library Team
